

Gala Dinner

Above: Veterans from the Battle of the River Plate being honoured

Left: Travis Livingstone and Shannon

Right: Butch Andrews and his daughter

Below Left: Trevor & Iris Smith

Below Right: Norm Lawton

Obelisk Dedication

Our Colour Party led the procession to Veteran's Point for the dedication.

Below Branch President Bruce Sharpe greets the Honourable David C. Onley while his wife Ruth Ann and Ajax Mayor Steve Parish look on

Some of our Branch veterans were on hand to enjoy the musical tribute

"The people of Ajax will never forget the origins of their name or the veterans who we all owe so very much," said David Onley, the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario. "We thank all of our veterans -- past, present and to come -- for all you do for our liberty," he said.

Below: All the bands assembled at Veteran's Point for the musical tribute

As the final tunes were played Sunday morning by a quartet of bands brought together for a massed performance and the thrill of an overhead fly-by carried out by a massive C-130 Hercules resonated within the large crowd.

After the fly past, Mayor Steve Parish, Lieutenant Governor David Onley, Ruth Ann Onley and Branch President Bruce Sharpe thanked the veterans from the United Kingdom and New Zealand who had come to Ajax for the week long celebrations

"We thank all of our veterans -- past, present and to come -- for all you do for our liberty"